About Us

The Friends of the Middleton Public Library organization was founded in 1973. Our members are citizens of Middleton and the surrounding area who believe that the library is a valuable asset to our community.

Visit our amazing book sales!

At our Friends book sales, you'll find gently used items at rock-bottom prices. Browse for books of all kinds, music CDs, videos and DVDS, and more. Buy items from the Friends book rack during library hours or come to our book sale room for our weekly Thursday and Friday sales or our monthly Saturday sales. New items are added every day! Book sale proceeds help us fund library programs.

Book donations accepted every day.

Your book donations are tax deductible

Because you believe libraries matter.

Our library continues to be recognized for excellence at the state and national level. Your contribution extend the library's operating budget to help fund all of the exciting, inspiring, and innovative programs our residents want and deserve.

That's why becoming a Friend is so important. When you join us,

- You'll help sponsor award-winning library programs, and other community events for children, teens, and adults.
- You'll seed innovations that the library budget can't always pursue.
- You'll enhance our library's collections.
- You'll help fund inviting garden displays.
- You'll help pay for computer and technology improvements that support a multitude of user needs.
- You'll help fund an annual college scholarship for a local library volunteer high school senior.

Support programing for the people, by the people

Why become a Friend of the library?

As a member of the Friends of the Middleton Public Library, you'll be paid back in a thousand ways every year—with smiles on children's faces, the sincere appreciation of the hard-working staff, and the satisfaction of knowing you make a difference to one of our community's most vitally important institutions.

The Middleton Library has served the community for over 90 years.

You'll also enjoy these members-only benefits:

- The opportunity to shop the book sales during members-only hours.
- Invitations to Friends events
- One free regularly priced book at a lower-level book sale with membership or renewal
- A subscription to our newsletter
