2020 SUMMER READING PROGRAM
June 15 - August 15

Reading Log
(Infants - Grade 12)

MY NAME IS: ___________________________________________

HOW IT WORKS

1. Choose a final reading goal and write it in the box below. Measure your reading goal in books or hours. Aim high! Books, magazines, e-books, audio books and books read to you all count.
2. Use this reading log to keep track of your reading.
3. Receive prizes when you reach your Halfway and Final Goals.
   - Halfway Prize = 1 book + 1 Grand Prize Drawing entry
   - Final Prizes = 1 book + 1 sponsor prize + 1 Grand Prize Drawing entry

MY FINAL READING GOAL IS: ___________ BOOKS or HOURS (Circle one)
Example: My Final Reading Goal is: 50 HOURS – Halfway to my Final Reading Goal is: 25 HOURS

HALFWAY TO MY FINAL READING GOAL IS: ___________

TO CLAIM PRIZES:

1. Fill out a Prize Claim Form online at midlibrary.org or at the Self Serve Summer Reading Station. Be sure to choose the correct form: Halfway or Final and fill it out completely.
2. Choose your Book Prize and/or Sponsor Prize from the lists online at midlibrary.org.
3. Prizes will be mailed to you or be available to pick up with your library holds – your choice!

PLEASE NOTE:
* Participants may complete the Summer Reading Program only once each summer.
* Halfway prize will be available beginning July 13. One week must pass before claiming Final Prizes.
* Grand Prize Winners will be selected on Monday, August 17 at 11am.
* Participants can still claim book prizes from August 17 through August 31.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Write the titles of the books you are reading on the lines below.</th>
<th>Write the amount of books or time.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Measuring by number of books example: We are in a Book! By Mo Willems</td>
<td>1 book</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Measuring by amount of time example: The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins</td>
<td>2 hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Out of room? Use any piece of paper, pick up an extra sheet or print this page again!

Many thanks to the Friends of the Middleton Public Library and corporate sponsors for funding library events and the Summer Reading Program. Please consider joining the Friends of the Middleton Public Library. Visit www.fompl.org for more information.